yes I know but it worked this morning HAH! finally! I don't know why it's broken now I found the problem. Its that the regular DVD works fine, but the Bonus DVD plays really bad. Guess I'll have to install windows to get any decent video lol thanks guys I'm going to do the repo thing and see if it happens again What? Good you found a fix? I guess I'll just try the ones I need.. I know. I'm just not sure why it would work in the morning and then just now, magically stop also what is the proper way to add yourself to a group, su -c would I just type in root:groupname or is there another way to do it but it did work I guess I'll just try the repo thing and see if it happens again Did you try to update your computer? I did that this morning and everything was working fine I'd try a reboot, but it might fix it. cjae: sudo adduser username groupname guys.. i will like to download ubuntu livecd 9.10 in my pc.... how to do that? Hajar: You can burn it to a dvd nothingspecial, you still there? nothingspecial, are you sure that is the proper way to do it im still trying to find a fix. i have a hd movie dvd rip on a dvd - wmv-x.avi. Hajar: There's a download option in ubuntu 82157476af
